The Three Rivers August campout was held September 11 - 13, 2015 at the The Cozy C Campground, Bowling Green, MO, hosted by Jim & Phyllis Stanton.

Memberships in attendance were: Brinkman, Ford, Hunter, Stanton, Tschannen, and Weeks.

All attendees were settled in to camp by Thursday evening. The weather for the whole weekend was ideal for camping; 50s in the morning warming up to pleasant afternoons.

Friday began the hunt for junk shops and antique stores. Most found "The Landing" for lunch where the food was great and the portions were huge. At the end of the day dinner was in camp with Brats, Burgers, Hots and Beans supplied by the hosts and the Brinkmans.

Saturday brought the Louisiana City Wide Yard Sale which combined with the Champ Clark Heritage Festival in Bowling Green provided even more opportunities to hunt little treasures. Several members visited the classic car show at the Festival where much time was spent reminiscing about "That car I used to have".

Dinner was at The Saints Avenue Cafe' for their really good buffet, followed by 99, Rummy Cube and chatting in the rec-room.

Sunday started with the usual potluck breakfast followed by the monthly meeting.

All-in-all it was a quiet and relaxing weekend.
