Irvin F. Charpiot April 11, 1937 - April 23, 2020

On April 23rd this Chapter lost one of its most cherished members. Irv's dry wit and dedication to this group will be sorely missed by all who came to know him. He was always ready to lend a helping hand or to provide "supervision" for any project.

He served in nearly every Chapter leadership position, and most recently served as Secretary for several years.

Our prayers go out to his wife Dorothy

#####

The State Director has informed us of the passing of Gail Ingham, wife of Bob Ingham, former State Director. Gail passed away May 8th, 2020 of cancer.

On a brighter note, Dale reports that he is feeling pretty good and is no longer in pain. He's able to walk again without his cane. He's still short of breath but for right now, he's doing great.

This email was received from Janet Basse May 20th:

Fred is coming home tonight with a life vest, he is being fitted right now, the news this morning was good. His heart is stronger than they thought, the lower part is better than what they expected, so they will be doing bypass surgery in the near future. So relieved right now.

The distribution of the Chapter's Revised Procedures and Guidelines remains on hold pending the approval of the voting membership.

FUTURE MEETINGS: SUBJECT TO THE CONDITIONS IMPOSED BY COVID-19

REMEMBER: All Campout reservations are made for Thursday, Friday & Saturday nights only. It is your responsibility to contact the Campground if you wish to change them.

Because Shoemaker's RV Park in Bevier, MO up and canceled our reservations without explanation, Dale has made arrangements with Tievoli Hills Resort (originally our May choice) to make room for our August outing.
